Circus Festival Monaco	mid to end of January
Zitronenfest von Menton	from mid February
Karneval in Nizza	from mid February

Circus Festival Monaco

The international Circus Festival from Monte Carlo is one of the most famous circus festivals of the world. It was established in 1974 by prince Rainier III of Monaco and it is under the patronage of the Monacan Royal family. The festival is a world championship in artistry. During the festival you can rent golden and silver clowns. During these days Monaco turnes into a huge circus with clowns, artists, different animals, which not only perform on the circus stage but make the streets of the Monarchy more lively.

Fête du Citron

Gigantic motifs made of citrus fruit which lie on flower carpets in the Bioves Gardens, the carriages decorated with oranges and lemons (The Golden Corsos) which move along the coast during the two-week festival find their routes in the culture of these regions. The Lemon Festival, Fête du Citron, a unique event worldwide attracts 230 000 visitors yearly, and the number shows an increasing tendency year by year. It is one of the most important events on the Côte d'Azur besides the Carnival of Nice and the Monaco Formula One Grand Prix. Over 300 employees and 145 tons of citrus fruit are put at your disposal. Each year the festival goes along with the International Orchid Festival and the Handicrafts Fair from the region Menton at the Palais de l'Europe Palace of Europe.

Blumenkorso von Nizza

The Carnival of Nice has a long tradition: in 1294 already Charles D'Anjou Prince of Provence spent the carnival period here. The Carnival of Nice is for admiring, not for taking part in it. Street artists from all over the world , fantastic elves, venturers on 3 meter high stalks, spitfire dragons announce the procession. The carriages go back and forth twice between the Theatre de Verdure and the Negresco Hotel. When they first pass by, the audience admires the artistic flower arrangements. At the second time the attenders plunder the decorations and throw the flowers among the people and the carnival fever seizes everybody on the Côte d'Azur.

The Impressionism
The Impressionist style of Claude Monet (1840 – 1926), Auguste Renoir (1841 – 1919) and Edgar Degas evolved in the second half of the 19th century in France. Opposed to the contemporary painting it is not the art of imitation in the sense of a real copy / image. Moreover it is the art of capturing and painting sensual impressions, recording of sensual impressions on the canvas. The Impressionists were not interested in the object on its own, its existence or its abstractness but its appearance, the atmosphere it creates in the subjective world of the contemplator.

Tour Itinarery

Tour Itinarery

Day 1
Journey to Normandy. You start the day with a visit to the Cathedral of Laon. It it one of the main artworks of the Gothic in France. It was built between 1155 and 1235 and is among the first churches built in this style. Then you move to Soissons, to visit the cathedral which dates from the time of Abaelard, it is a 13th century- construction. The bombings in 1914 split the nave of the church in two and demolished a tower. The restauration work ended in 1937.The southern part of the nave begun in 1177 is a mastepiece of the Gothic. In the evening you also visit the Notre – Dame Cathedral von Noyon, which was built sometime between 1157 – 1221 during the time of Bishop Baudouin II on his initiative. Besides the cathedrals from Sens and Laon it is among the first churches built in Gothic style, it can be assigned to Early Gothic. The vaulting was originally sexpartite but was rebuilt in the quadripartite style between 1150 and 1185. The churches Flanders and Hennegus Pate followed.

Day 2
Visit the town Beauvais, which was a battlefield during the 100 year- war against the English. Jeanne Hachette, defended the town during the offensive of the prince of Burgundy and she became the heroine of the town. Then you visit the cathedral from Beauvais which has the highest arch (in the southern transept 48,50 meter)of all churches in the world. In Amiens you visit the part of the town called St – Leu, characterized by channels and very small houses. The cathedral of Amiens is nowadays the greatest medieval French building. Its outside length is 145 meter, inside 133,5 meter. Its heigth is 35 meter. When it was built it was the highest church in the world.

Day 3
On the way to the city centre (Paris) you visit the St Denis Basilica. It has been a cathedral from 1966 and it has been the burial spot of all French kings and queens.
The building is of unique importance historically and architecturally, as its choir started in 1136 is considered to be the first medieval Gothic architecture ever built. In Paris you also visit the world famous Cathedral of Notre Dame and the Sainte Chapelle on the Ile de la Cité. Notre Dame reflects the history of the city. In 1302 was the first States General held here. In 1455 the trial of Jeanne d'Arc was opened, in 1559 the wedding of Franz II and Maria Stuart took place at the church. During the French Revolution the cathedral was either destroyed or plundered. Robespierre saved the church from destruction. Napoleon I defined it as God's House in 1802 and was crowned Emperor two years later.

Lothringen... Lorraine...
It should be without ornaments but the word" gold" is there in the first syllable already. You can find Lorraine's gold on the Stanislas Square and in the Saint-Étienne Cathedral in Metz, which gleam in this warm colour. The Bergamotte candies are also golden, and the mirabelle fruit which refines the lotharingian cuisine is white. The mirabelle plum is the emblematic fruit of Lorraine and the central point of several culinary feasts in autumn.

Tour Itinarery

Day 1
Arrival to Metz or Nancy

Day 2
Nancy, town of the Art Nouveau and the secret of the mirabelle
In the morning our guide takes you on a tour across Nancy, the former capital of the Lothringen Dukedom. The highlight of the tour is the famous Stanislas Square, constructed according to the principle of the French kings' squares, with a statue in the centre, the statue of King Stanislas I, who became the Duke of Lothringen after the supersession in Poland.
From Nancy you move on to the Quiche Lorraine cooking course, where you will prepare your own Quiche Lorraine (pastry crust). While the Quiche is in the oven you take a short side trip to the Mirabelle mansion where you get a glimpse into the secrets of making mirabelle brandy. After tasting the delicious brandy you go back to Auberge to taste the Quiche Lorraine.

Day 3
Metz, a city of history and modernity
In the Middle Ages Metz was considered to be a spiritual centre with its numerous monasteries. Metz not only features a beautiful old town but also a modern centre with its highlight the Centre Pompidou, a branch of the Pompidou Arts Centre of Paris with numerous contemporary artefacts. The highlight of the tour is the St Etienne Cathedral, which thrones on a hill above the Moselle and impresses with its beautiful glass windows. These windows display the development of sacred art, there are windows from the period of Gothic and also modern ones created by Marc Chagall. After the tour you have some time for a walk, to go shopping or have a cup of coffee in one of the street bistros.

Day 4

The mushroom festival
A culinary highlight of the numerous autumn festivals in Alsace is the mushroom festival in Eguisheim. You will taste the delicious Flammkuchen, a kind of French pizza, prepared with fresh mushrooms from the forest and enjoy a glass of the world - famous Riesling of Alsace.

Day 1
Arrival, overnight stay in Alsace

Day 2
A whole day trip – culinary Alsace
After breakfast you go along the wine route towards Colmar. You make a stop in the wine growing region Riquewir, a winemaker will tell you all the important facts about the famous wine of Alsace and you'll get the chance to taste it of course.
Colmar is renowned for its well preserved Old town. In the 16th century it was a centre for trade with its own harbour. Wine traders transported their goods on the canals of the river, a quarter now called „Little Venice".
In the afternoon everything is about mushrooms in Eguisheim, a speciality of the region. On the market stands you'll get familiar with numerous sorts of mushrooms and different ways to prepare them. You can make a reservation at a restaurant to have dinner made up of 3 separate dishes and get another chance to taste the fine mushrooms.

Day 3
Strasbourg, a city in the historical heart of Europe
The capital of the Alsace region, Strasbourg is called a point of intersection in Europe because of its location. If you take a tour of the city you'll discover the picturesque quarter Petite France with its wonderful timbered houses and visit the cathedral, a real masterpiece. A ship journey down the river Ill, which surrounds the old town is like a sightseeing tour. In the evening you will be served Flammkuchen, an Alsace speciality in an Alsatian restaurant.

Day 4

Day 1

Departure to „col d'Éza, the highest point of the famous „Grande Corniche", the highest road between Nice and Monaco. Then a short climb follows to Mont Bastide which used to be the lodging place of the Ligurian population. Being about 550 meters above sea level you will experience one of the most breathtaking views of the Riviera. You go down and visit the Eze village, an eyrie on a cliff , then follow the traces of the famous philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche, who got his inspiration on this road.

Altitude difference: 100 m up 600 m down, walk approx. 2 and a half hours

Day 2

We get to Monti, on the Menton hill , town which borders on Italy. You go on a hiking tour along the "Pfad der Balkone", more than 500 km long along the Mediterranean until Marseille. Only 4 kms, the most pleasant parts of the route are included in the programme. We hike among olive groves, enjoy the scent of lavender and thyme and climb to the village Sainte-Agnes, the highest coastline village in Europe, around 700 m above sea level. Take a tour of this medieval village.

Altitude difference: 510 m, walk approx. 3 hours

Day 3

Depart from the hotel with the luggage and set out towards the Sea Alps and Mercantour. We pass by Vartal with its beautiful limestone cliffs until you unexpectedly stand in front of a unique scenery in Europe: the small Colorado of Nice. Continue hiking as if you were flying over the Daluis Gorge. You admire the contrasts nature created between red cliffs and vegetation. You get to a vantage point you will not easily forget, which lies 400 m above the gorge. Then we take the bus in the village and leave towards Castellane, go across landscapes which resemble postcards from Provence. Our way leads through the Voralps, Grasse, mountain landscapes, fields and forests alternate.

Altitude difference: 300m, walk approx. 3 hours

Day 4

The socalled „Baou"(meaning cliff) of Saint -Jeannet is situated a few kilometers away from Vence, an impressive 400 m high limestone rock cliff. On the way up we enjoy dreamy views of the Nice coastal area. Thyme, rosemary, pepper and mint scents remind us of Provence. In the afternoon we visit the picturesque artists'village Tourettes-sur-Loup, still a centre for active arts and crafts. The houses and streets from the Middle Ages are well preserved.

Altitude difference: 400 m, walk approx. 3 and a half hours

Day 5

We leave for Grasse, world centre of the perfume industry and follow the traces of Napoleon along the famous Route Napoleon . Today's walk brings us over paths used by cattle herds en route to and from Alpine pastures, up to the archaeological site of "Oppidum de la Malle", a fortified encampment built from stone blocks and dating back to centuries B.C During the picnic, the view over nature's finest landscapes topped with typical provençal dry stone cottages is beautiful. We continue by bus to Gourdon, a perched village at an altitude of 650 meters. From there, we walk down the "Paradise way" which, for centuries, was the only access road to the village and overlooks a fabulous panorama. Dinner and overnight in Vence.

Altitude difference: 250 m up 650 m down, walk approx. 4 hrs

Price for a person from € 249,00 in double room

4 overnight stays/ breakfast
4 dinners (3-course menue excl. beverages)

normandie, cidre, calvados & cheese

Although many people associate Normandy with a rustic idyll with satisfied cows, the northern region has a lot more to offer. The western region is more rustic with small fields surrounded by hedges and beech forests. Opposed to it you find north to Rouen, Normandy's capital, Côte d'Albâtre with its chalk cliffs. Along this coast you can see wonderful beaches, the famous Mont St. Michel lies further on to the south. If you follow the course of the river inland you pass by apple orchards and timbered houses, which radiate calmness. Apple orchards are a familiar picture in Normandy, the apple being a part of the region's cuisine. No patisserie wants to miss the opportunity to offer its Normand tart. Most part of the apple crop is used for making cider and calvados. The Lion d'Or tavern is worth visiting in Bayeux.

Guided tour across the Pyrenees

From the 11th February 1858 on a woman dressed in white appeared several times near the Grotto of Massabielle (massevieille meaning old cliff) to Bernadette. Later it disclosed itself again, the priest and the church commitee interpreted it as the confirmation of the doctrine of the immaculate conception, Virgin Mary. The Blessed Virgin is said to have pointed out a previously undiscovered spring in the grotto and instructed Bernadette to have a church built on this spot. Nowadays Lourdes is one of the most important pilgrimage sites of the Catholic church, where believers look for advice and support in difficult times.

Brussels
A city of antagonism. Europe's political metropolis and at the same time a town, which has preserved its provincial charme. Here you can see Art Nouveau around the Palais Royal and the Leopold quarter, there strict Classicism around the Place of Martyrs, a bit of Barock on Beguinage square, Art deco near the Forest Park and in Koekelberg and the Modern Art in the metro's labyrinth. Flocks of visitors stroll nowadays in the historical heart of Brussels, sip an ember coloured beer "Duvel" and a darker Abtei beer from Grimbergen in one of the many cafes between Maison du Roi and De Ville Hotel, enjoy oysters and Weinberg snails in the Rue de Bouchers and Petit Rue de Bouchers.

Luxembourg
Siegfried, Count of Ardennes built his fort on the Bock rock, which became the cradle of the town Luxembourg. The first fairs were held in front of the St. Michaelskirche surrounded by a modest fortification. Being under the rule of Burgundy, Spain, France, Austria and Prussia a unique mixture of architectural styles developed in Luxembourg. The historical is enriched by masterpieces of modern architecture. The Grand Duchy presents itself as European political metropolis. The multicultural way of life was greatly influenced by the geographical location. Being a founding member of the European Coal and Steel Community Luxembourg is today head of numerous Institutions of the European Union. It is really in the heart of Europe.
